LEARNING, TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

6a. Module Description

This module introduces you to the field of contemporary performance theory and practice in relation to Shakespeare. This will include the study of a range of twentieth and twenty-first century critical and directorial interpretations of plays by Shakespeare in the theatre and on film.

Part of the focus of the module will encompass issues that continue to be contested today, such as power, sexuality, gender, justice, morality, religion and war. This will be supplemented by the study of directorial strategies and creative responses to Shakespeare's plays that follow a variety of practical approaches to acting and performance.

Exploration will focus on the ways in which critics, directors and actors generate meanings from Shakespeare's plays, drawing on the details of primary texts, secondary criticism and examples of contemporary creative responses to the plays.

6b. Outline Content

- Analysis of contemporary theoretical and critical responses to selected Shakespeare plays; - Exploration of the generation of meanings and interpretations by directors and actors in theatre performance and on film through the twentieth and twenty-first centuries; - Study of the varieties of contemporary acting and performance methods applicable to Shakespeare's plays; - Students to initiate, define and carry out a specific creative and collaborative rationale for a performance of a sequence selected for performance; - Practical work on an ensemble performance developed from a sequence selected from a Shakespeare play.
