LEARNING, TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

6a. Module Description

The module starts with the consideration of the question, 'what is land?' You'll explore the nature of ownership and the legal and equitable estates and interests that can exist in land and examine how estates and interests are protected including the systems of unregistered and registered title to land. Whilst looking at the underlying principles of land law, you'll study the various estates and interests in greater detail, including leasehold estate and third party interests such as mortgages, easements and covenants, co-ownership and the role and duties of trustees and beneficiaries of co-owned land.

As this module fulfils part of the seven Foundations of Legal Knowledge, in alignment with the Bar Standards Board's requirement compensation is not permitted for this module.

6b. Outline Content

Nature of Land: how to acquire and transfer legal and equitable estates; how to acquire and dispose of legal and equitable interests in land; methods to protect and enforce third party interests; different ways in which land can be held; legal formalities required to create and transfer interests in land; the registered and unregistered land systems.

Co-ownership and Trusts: differences between joint tenants and tenants in common in law and in equity; rule of survivorship; severance of joint tenancies; role of trustees and beneficiaries.

Proprietary Rights: essential characteristics of easements; methods for creation of easements; rules for the passing of the benefit and burden of freehold covenants; mortgages including enforceability of terms, priority of mortgages and a lender's rights and duties.

Landlord and Tenant: relationship between landlord and tenant in a lease; essential characteristics of a lease including the difference between a lease and a licence; structure of a lease; privity of contract and privity of estate; purpose and effect of an alienation covenant.

Leasehold Covenants: rules for the passing of the benefit and burden of leasehold covenants and enforceability; remedies for breach of leasehold covenants (including forfeiture); different ways a lease can be terminated; scope of protection for tenants if they enjoy security of tenure under a lease.
