LEARNING, TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

6a. Module Description

In this module you will be introduced to the field of youth work, focusing on the principles and practices of safeguarding. You will develop a sturdy foundation in essential concepts, ethical considerations, and practical strategies pertinent for engaging with young people across diverse settings. Recognised as a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) module, it offers comprehensive training, qualifications, skills, and knowledge essential for youth work and the safeguarding of children and young people. Whether you are new to working with young people or are seeking to deepen your understanding of youth work practice, this module serves as a catalyst for obtaining the qualifications vital for your professional development. CPD in youth work, coupled with a solid grounding in safeguarding principles, prove exceptionally beneficial if you choose to pursue a career in youth work, social work, probation, youth offending, and policing.

This module will cover a spectrum of competencies essential for building positive relationships and for promoting your own social mobility.
